Introduction

Content development is more challenging than ever. Throughout this guide, you'll see research findings that give you a candid look at what 1,500 creatives and the IT leaders who support them* see as their top challenges and needs.¹ You'll learn what small- to large-sized organisations around the globe face in their creative workplaces – and what they want going forward.

Key takeaways? A hybrid workplace with a broader set of teams creating content is making collaboration, consistency and compliance more challenging. Additionally, the ever-growing challenge to keep pace with social media and stay relevant heightens the already pressing need for creative teams to stay agile.

Read on to explore what creative teams and leaders say about today's landscape. You'll also discover how Pro Edition, our latest Adobe Creative Cloud offering for business, empowers your organisation by supporting agile content development, ensuring greater brand consistency, reducing potential risk and keeping budgets more predictable.

Create without limits.

Bring ideas to life with more than 200 million standard images, vectors, illustrations, templates and 3D assets – all within your favourite Creative Cloud apps.

Pro Edition is available for teams and organisations with 5 or more users.

Trends shaping the creative workplace

Hybrid work environments add complexity.

While the hybrid work model offers greater employee flexibility and productivity, it also creates more demands for those involved with content development and creative work. Both IT leaders and creative teams note typical organisational problems carry over into distributed workplaces.

78% report it's more difficult to ensure consistent use of assets

76% say their teams have purchased the same asset more than once

Agile content development is a necessity.

When social media sets the pace, creative teams often scramble to stay relevant. High expectations for content accelerates the need for a platform that supports streamlined creative development, collaboration and output.

86% say it's very difficult to stay relevant with their audience

81% state they're asked to develop more content in less time

84% seek more efficient workflows

Trends shaping the creative workplace

More teams creating content makes it harder to stay on-brand and compliant.

Extended teams of in-house creatives, agency partners, full and part-time employees, and freelance contractors help organisations manage the need for agility, diversity and originality. However, this model makes it more difficult to keep content both consistent and on-brand.

More non-creative teams are creating branded content.
